SPRINGWATER MONARCH, 2801.
 Bred by Mr. Ed. K. Rea, Millville, Mo.

Calved 7th July, 1885.
 Sire—Sam of Culrook 2320 (2502) by Sam of Drought 2309.
 Dam—Nellie 4th of the Green 2129 (6948) by Bob of the Green (2608).
 Grand dam, Nellie 2d of the Green (6958) by Nimrod 2d (2607).

Third dam, Nellie of the Green.
 SAM OF CULROCK 2320 was bred by J. McCutcheon, Culrook, Gatehouse, Scotland; and imported by Hon. M. H. Cochrane.

BOB OF THE GREEN (2608) was by Bob of Lairdlaugh (1061), which, the only time he was shown, took a leading prize at Castle-Douglas against 126 competitors. His sire was Sir Garnet (1106), a son of Flying Dutchman, (547), a son of a superior breeding bull, and whose sire was Norman (529). Bob of Lairdlaugh's dam was by Rob Roy of Lairdlaugh (1105), a son of a capital breeding bull, Nelson (1104). Bob of the Green's (2608) dam was by Prince Bismarck (699), which gained first prize at Carlisle in 1870, and second at Perth Highland Society's Show in 1871.

NIMROD 2d (2607) was by Nimrod, a son of Norman (529). The dam of Nimrod 2d was by Sir John the Graham (522), personally a distinguished prize-taking bull, and a member of a family of Galloways—those of Semiramis—which was unusually conspicuous for several generations. Indeed, Sir John the Graham's dam and granddam were both Highland Society first-prize cows.

Nellie 4th of the Green 2129 is a cow of excellent qualities and much merit.

 family, being out of Semiramis 5th (1419), and she out of Semiramis 2d, (1321), who was a daughter of Semiramis (703), the foundation female of the Semiramis family, so proverbial, wherever known, for their striking resemblance and their uniform quality.

SCOTTISH BORDERER (669) was by Black Prince of Drumlanrig (547), the premier Galloway bull of his day, for which £900 was refused when eleven years of age, and whose blood is more largely diffused through the choicest herds of Galloways than any other Galloway known.

ALICE OF BORELAND 923 (6343) is a very choice cow and was originally selected by Mr. W. C. Weedon as a member of his personal herd.
